

APS Facebook Report

American Peony Society July 2020

As this time, we have over 3500 members and it continues to increase every day. Our main focus is to help promote the American Peony Society and its programs through announcements and providing links for further information. We are also here to promote peonies through photos and information on caring for them and if possible, their origination and availability.

Craig Aiken

Social Media Member

American Peony Society