Jill Stevens has been in love with peonies since childhood. When she moved to her current location in 1993 her back yard was a vacant lot. Now it is filled with over 1000 varieties of peonies. She enjoys caring for her peonies and keeping meticulous records of their progress. Orange Glory is the name of her favorite peony. She is passionate about showing and sharing her peonies. She is a Master Gardener, Former Master Gardener State Advisory Board Member, American Peony Society Board Director, and APS Award of Landscape Merit judge. Her garden has appeared on Pioneer Public Television's Prairie Yard and Garden program on 2 occasions. The peonies have been featured in print in The Senior Perspective, The APS Bulletin, and most recently in Minnesota Farm Guide.
