

CONVENTION TERMS & CONDITIONS

Please carefully read this document prior to agreeing to terms and purchasing a registration.

Terms

- Participation within meetings, tours, member auction and banquet are paid as “Registration Fees”. Restricted to members only.
- Participation in The Flower Show & Exhibition and Seminars are open to the public and are free of charge.
- Convention Registration Fees do not cover lodging, which are arranged for separately by individually attending members, thus are not the responsibility of APS.
- Convention Registration and associated fees may be refundable under the following conditions (updated July 2024):
  - In the event a member has made payment and is unable to attend, the following will apply (beginning in 2025):
    - All but $50 will be refunded up until approximately 2 months prior to convention start.
    - All but $100 will be refunded up until approximately 1 month prior to convention start.
    - No refunds will be made if cancellation is less than 1 month prior to convention start.
- Registration Fees are paid for the entire convention and may not be broken down into sub-parts if members do not or cannot attend all functions. No single part of the convention may be cancelled or refunded.
- In some cases, APS may offer special “add-on” activities which are non-refundable in whole. (examples: special tours, optional classes outside of normal convention offerings).
- A waiver is required to be signed and on file before any member can partake in Convention activities. The waiver is available prior convention check-in.
