

Trapp Short Biographical Sketch

Pat has been Master Gardener Volunteer for 7 years, a longtime peony and daylily association member and enthusiast. Her increased research, exploring and trying different cultivars of peonies was spurred on by attending the National Peony Convention ballroom display the last time it was hosted in Wisconsin in 2016. The Wisconsin Peony Society and American Peony Society have both been sources of learning for Pat.

---